

Staff photo by Jim Cruz

Krewe hosts parade, ball

Members of the Krewe of Aquarius royalty admire the sequined train designed and made by the krewe's prince and princess. The train will be featured today in the krewe's truck parade which will begin at 1:30 p.m. on University Boulevard and travel west on Seawall Boulevard to 57th Street. The judges' viewing stand will be located at the Commodore Hotel, 37th Street and Seawall. Also appearing in the parade will be the krewe's royalty, (from left) Linda Tong, queen; Patt Kates, princess; Fran Gaubiel, duke; Henry Bierman, duke; Johnny Lidstone, prince; and Tom Hunter, king. The krewe will host a community ball tonight from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Hope Arena. Tickets are available by calling 744-7673 for information.

created using
BCL easyPDF
Printer Driver

Click here to purchase a license to remove this image