

Texas; Texas A & M University at Galveston; the Cajun Club of Houston; and Don La Fleur, regional country and cajun star, and his band.

For further information about the Aquarius Parade, call 763-0820 or 763-5184 in Galveston.

The Krewe of Aquarius Mardi Gras Masked Ball and Royal Pageant will be the same evening of the morning parade, on February 2. The Sixth Annual Ball will be at Moody Gardens in the new Garden Ballroom at Two Hope Boulevard. The krewe annually hosts some 500 guests at this black-tie affair. Tickets are $25 per person, b.y.o.b. with setups included. The Royal Pageant begins at 9 p.m. The Kit Reed Orchestra will be the featured entertainment. For more information regarding the Krewe of Aquarius Masked Ball, call 938-0830 on the mainland or 763-5184 in Galveston.

The Mystic Krewe of the Knights of Aquarius was established in March of 1985 to celebrate the revival of Mardi Gras festivities on Galveston Island. In addition to its social activities, the krewe makes several charitable contributions to local nonprofit agencies and organizations each year.

On Sunday, February 3, krewe members will assist with the "Ball for Special People," a Mardi Gras celebration for handicapped individuals which is sponsored annually by Hope Charities, Inc. This event will include music, refreshments and entertainment. For more information about this event, call 744-HOPE.

---30---

Contact persons: Geneva Lidstone, 763-5184
Johnny Lidstone, 763-0820