continues to play an important part in keeping the carnival spirit of Mardi Gras alive on Galveston Island. Aquarius was responsible for the first weekend of festivities when they sponsored their inaugural parade in 1987.

For the past seven Mardi Gras seasons, Aquarius has sponsored one of the largest and most lavish Mardi Gras Ball's in the city. The highlight of this elegant black tie affair is the royal pageant where the elaborately dressed royal court is presented and the King and Queen are crowned.

Each year the Krewe gives donations to various charities which include Our Daily Bread, Women's Crisis Center and the Ronald MacDonald House.

This large and prestigious Krewe is governed by four officers and a board of directors. The officers are Johnny Lidstone - President, Ann Parker - Vice President, Dorothy Cortemeglia - Secretary, and Robert Roberts - Treasurer. Board of Directors include Paul Wasserloos - Captain, and members Margaret Mikish, John MOen, Geneva Lidstone, Mark Johnstone, Wanda Caballero and Mozelle Carson.
