

Staff photo by Jim Sloffs

Betti Sartor and Ed Mikesh were crowned queen and king of the Mystic Krewe of Aquarius' Mardi Gras celebration Saturday night.

Krewe of Aquarius crowns Mardi Gras royalty at ball

GALVESTON — The Mystic Krewe of Aquarius crowned Ed Mikesh and Betti Sartor king and queen of the krewe's 1993 Mardi Gras celebration Saturday.

The two were crowned at a "Putting on the Ritz" masked ball and coronation pageant at Moody Gardens.

Doris Scofelia served as their lady in waiting.

At the ceremony, these krewe royalty were presented:

Baron Mark Johnstone and Baroness Leslie Petkovsky, with lady in waiting Gwen King.

Count Joe Caballero and Countess Nancy Manlove, with lady in waiting Dee Baier.

Duke John Moen and Duchess Wanda Caballero, with lady in waiting Diane Ridgeway.

Prince Jack Veiga and Princess Dorthy Cortameglia, with lady in waiting Donna Bumpas.

Past krewe royalty recognized at the ball included Robert Roberts, Ann Parker, Tom Hunter, Johnny Lidstone, Geneva Lidstone, Merle Lidstone and Margaret Mikesh.

The evening featured the music of Kit Reid and his orchestra, with dance performances by the Krewe of Harlequins and the Krewe of Aquarius Dance Troupe.