Krewe's News

Krewe Luau

Our first Krewe luau was a huge success and great fun. Fifty Krewe members attended and enjoyed a fabulous buffet. Thanks to Betty, Caroline and Marian for all their work.

Cancelled—Mardi Gras in August

The planned Mardi Gras in August has been cancelled due to slow ticket sales. It seems that members were concerned about the heat this time of year in our float barn.

Krewe Party and Dance - August 13

The Krewe voted to have a party and dance on Saturday, August 13 at the Elks Lodge, 1518 Tremont, in Galveston. "Wild about Texas" will provide live entertainment from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. A cash bar will sell mixed drinks, beer, and sodas, and the Krewe will provide hot dogs and nachos. Please remember you cannot bring liquor or Jell-O shots into the Elks Lodge. Keith Henries is chairing this event, and tickets are $10/person.

USO SHOW

Plans are underway for our major fundraiser, the annual Krewe of Aquarius USO Show. This year's big production, with a theme of "Our Heroes", will be held on Saturday, November 5, at the Balinese Room; starting time is 7:30 p.m. Cast members and production associates have already met, set up a master schedule, and secured many acts. If you are interested in performing or helping with the show, please contact Johnny Lidstone at (409) 763-0820 or JoAnn Michael at (409) 744-9436. Pat Collier will be in charge of ticket sales. Cost is $10/person, and tickets will be available soon.

BIG TROLLEY PARTY

Our very popular Big Trolley Party is just around the corner—Saturday, August 27. Tickets are $5/person, and only a few tickets are left. Bring your own drinks (no glass bottles), snacks, and lots of beads. It's an Art Walk night so there should be plenty of merriment and people on the G-town streets. We will make three stops: Cocktails on Mechanic, The Stork Club on Postoffice, and Robert's Lafitte on 25th where there will be a brief show. Fun begins at 6:30 p.m. at the trolley barn at 30th and Santa Fe Place and ends at 9:30 p.m.
