Crawfish Zydeco Festival

The Krewe is in the early stages of planning a Krewe Crawfish Boil and Zydeco Music Festival for the weekend of May 20. Mike McKinney will be festival chair. Tentative plans call for an afternoon/evening event in the downtown vicinity of the Eagles Lodge on Post Office Street. Plans are to sell crawfish in the afternoon, and follow with a Zydeco dance that evening. Mike will have more information about the festival at our April 13 meeting.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL YEAR...

Last year, 2005-06, was a very successful year for our Krewe. We had many fundraising and social events, and all were rewarding and kind to our pocketbook. I look forward to these events returning in 2006, as well as new ones. If you have any ideas, please feel free to present them to our officers and board. And, if you are interested in volunteering, please let me know. Many have stepped up to the plate again.

The Mystic Krewe of Aquarius has always been blessed with an active membership who work together for the good of order. As we bring in new members over the next year, please help me welcome them and let them know how glad we are that they have chosen to be a member of the Mystic Krewe of Aquarius.

Sincerely,

Johnny M. Lidstone, Krewe President
