July 4th Parade

Galveston's July 4th Parade will take on a new look this year — Plans are underway to move the parade to the Seawall with a start time of 8 p.m. Our Krewe has been invited to participate in this fabulous lighted event on this July 4th. The final route has yet to be determined, but we should know more in the next few weeks. At this time, the Krewe plans to use three floats, and of course, all Krewe members are invited to ride. Space will be made available for everyone even if we have to add a fourth float. All Krewe members will be responsible for their own beads and patriotic throws.

Upcoming Krewe Fundraisers and Social Events

Listed below are dates and preliminary information for several of our ever popular and long standing Krewe fundraisers and social events. Please mark your calendars — hope to see many of you at these events. We are always looking for ideas. Please don't be shy. Last year, we added the very successful Spirit Basket that we will do again this year. Thanks again for everyone's ideas and continued support.

Trolley Party. Chip and Lynn Shearrow will organize this year's famous Trolley Party. It is scheduled for August 25 in conjunction with an ArtWalk Saturday.

Brisket Sale. Andy Kerstens will stage our annual brisket sale just in time for Labor Day (September).

Garage Sale. John Gonzales will spearhead the annual garage sale on October 13 at our float barn. John is already collecting items. As our treasurer points out, the garage sale costs the Krewe nothing. If you have donations and need to get them to the barn, call John at (409) 763-0820.

Pub Krawl. Chip Shearrow and Pat Saenz will chair our annual Pub Krawl on October 26.

USO Show will be held on Saturday, November 17.

A committee has been formed to explore the possibility of compiling and selling a Krewe Cookbook. The Krewe has talked about this before, but this time, looks like it is going to happen with a lot of interest and ideas. More to come in the next few weeks. Start looking at your recipes for favorites to share.
